Former UC Davis Employee Sentenced in Embezzlement Case

(Woodland, CA) –June 2, 2011 -Yolo County District Attorney Jeff Reisig announced today that Yolo County Superior Court Judge Janet Gaard sentenced former UC Davis employee Jennifer Beeman to five years felony probation and 180 days County jail for Embezzlement and Falsifying of government records from the UC Davis Campus Violence Prevention Program. Judge Gaard also ordered Beeman to pay $9,153.50 in restitution.

Beeman who oversaw the Campus Violence Prevention Program at UC Davis from 1999 until 2007 was charged with taking in excess of $10,000 in University funds and falsifying the University's records to cover up some of the thefts. Beeman entered felony pleas to one count of Embezzlement of Government Funds and one count of Falsifying Government Accounts, and had already re-paid $1372.00 of the embezzled funds.

The investigation and prosecution was the result of the collective effort of the UC Davis Police Department, United States Department of Justice Office of Inspector General and the Yolo County District Attorney's Office.
